INDEX.

A

Aberdeenshire, reports from, 96. 230. 368. 494.

——— dates of sowing and shearing in, from 1789 to 1813, 289.

Accounts, manufacturers' and farmers' compared, 218.

Agricultural Publications, review of, 63. 206. 343. 478.

——— intelligence, 93. 229. 367. 492.

Agriculture, Board of, circular letters from, on the expenses of cultivation, 218.

——— state of, in France, 401—different classes of cultivators, ib.—causes which have obstructed or favoured its progress, 405—rotations, 409—leases, 410—covenants, 411.

——— state of, in England, 411.

——— state of, in the county of Nottingham, 458.

——— progress of, in Cumberland, 467.

Aiton, William, his description of the islands of Bute and Arran, 33—account of the improvements on the estates of the Countess of Loudoun and Moira, by, 472.

Angus, of the breeds and management of cattle in, 22.

Annandale, Upper, reports from, 97. 231. 369. 494.

——— Agricultural Society of, 237.

Apple (Oslin), remarks on the variety so called, 299.

Arran and Bute, description of the islands of, 33.

Ayrshire, on the produce of turnips in, 53—on the past and present state of husbandry in, 173.

——— reports from, 98. 232. 370. 495.

B

Ballingall, Niel, his account of the mode of conducting a drain through quicksands, 338.

Banffshire, reports from, 99. 234. 371. 496.

Barberry, occasions mildew, 486.

Berwickshire, reports from, 99. 235. 371. 497.

——— letters from, 372. 498.

Bute and Arran, description of the islands of, with an account of their agricultural improvements, 33.

C

Campbell, John, Esq. letter on the Corn-laws by, 206—his sentiments objected to, 207—letter from, regarding the review of, 360—remarks by the Reviewer on, 361.

Canal between Falkirk and Edinburgh, remarks on the proposed line of, 114. 252.

Carrots, on the culture of, and weight with and without manure, 7. 482.

Cattle, on the breeds and management of in Angus, 22—on the short-horned breed of, 59. 61—numbers fed at distilleries in Scotland, 428—experiments in soiling, 478—machine for weighing, 486.

INDEX.

A

Aberdeenshire, reports from, 96. 230. 368. 494.

——— dates of sowing and shearing in, from 1789 to 1813, 289.

Accounts, manufacturers' and farmers' compared, 218.

Agricultural Publications, review of, 63. 206. 343. 478.

——— intelligence, 93. 229. 367. 492.

Agriculture, Board of, circular letters from, on the expenses of cultivation, 218.

——— state of, in France, 401—different classes of cultivators, ib.—causes which have obstructed or favoured its progress, 405—rotations, 409—leases, 410—covenants, 411.

——— state of, in England, 411.

——— state of, in the county of Nottingham, 458.

——— progress of, in Cumberland, 467.

Aiton, William, his description of the islands of Bute and Arran, 33—account of the improvements on the estates of the Countess of Loudoun and Moira, by, 472.

Angus, of the breeds and management of cattle in, 22.

Annandale, Upper, reports from, 97. 231. 369. 494.

——— Agricultural Society of, 237.

Apple (Oslin), remarks on the variety so called, 299.

Arran and Bute, description of the islands of, 33.

Ayrshire, on the produce of turnips in, 53—on the past and present state of husbandry in, 173.

——— reports from, 98. 232. 370. 495.

B

Ballingall, Niel, his account of the mode of conducting a drain through quicksands, 338.

Banffshire, reports from, 99. 234. 371. 496.

Barberry, occasions mildew, 486.

Berwickshire, reports from, 99. 235. 371. 497.

——— letters from, 372. 498.

Bute and Arran, description of the islands of, with an account of their agricultural improvements, 33.

C

Campbell, John, Esq. letter on the Corn-laws by, 206—his sentiments objected to, 207—letter from, regarding the review of, 360—remarks by the Reviewer on, 361.

Canal between Falkirk and Edinburgh, remarks on the proposed line of, 114. 252.

Carrots, on the culture of, and weight with and without manure, 7. 482.

Cattle, on the breeds and management of in Angus, 22—on the short-horned breed of, 59. 61—numbers fed at distilleries in Scotland, 428—experiments in soiling, 478—machine for weighing, 486.

Checketts, Thomas, on an improved mode of drilling wheat, 49.
Colling, Robert, his answers to queries regarding the short-horned breed of cattle, 61.
Corn laws, remarks on, 93—hints regarding, 177.
——— report of the Committee of the House of Lords on, 437—minutes of evidence taken before, 439.
——— report of the Committee of the House of Commons on, 445—minutes of evidence taken before:—Expenses of cultivating grain in Northumberland by Mr Bailey, 451—by Arthur Young, Esq. 452—by Mr Turnbull, East Lothian, 455.
Correspondents, notices to, 132. 272.
Cow, produce of Cramp's, 481.
Crows, useful in destroying grubs, 315.
Cumberland, reports from, 120. 260.
Currency (Paper), depreciation of the, proved by the Earl of Lauderdale, 63—further considerations on the state of, ib.—essay on money and, 179—value of, at different periods, 222.

D

Dairy, some particulars regarding an extensive one near Glasgow, 188.
——— management in Surrey, 314.
Devizes, letter from a correspondent near, 126.
Devonshire, letters from, 262.
Distilleries, cattle and swine fed at, when working from grain, 428.
Don, George, a celebrated botanist, memoir of, 131—case of the family of, 841.
Drain through quicksands, mode of executing a, 338.
Dumfries-shire, reports from, 100. 236. 373. 499.

E

Edinburgh, objections to the market-place at, for sheep and lambs, 466.
England, state of agriculture in, 411.
Engraving of the Grubber, 198—of a drain through quicksands—of a Sheep-cot, 338—of a wheel-plough and wheel-brake, 434.
Erica Herbacea, on the introduction of, 159.
Estimate of the expense of cultivating grain in Scotland, 133.

F

Farm-dung, on the management of, 16—remarks on Sir H. Davy's sentiments concerning, ib.
Farm-horses, strictures on the tax on, 273—comparison between horses and oxen in the consumption of produce, 281.
Farnham, Lord, on the culture of potatoes in Ireland, 56.
Fences, on the obligation on tenants to support, without express stipulations, 27.
Fifeshire, reports from, 103. 237. 374. 499.
Fiorin, on the varieties of, 192.
Forfarshire, reports from, 104. 239. 376. 500.
——— reports from the eastern district of, 106. 240. 378.
France, state of agriculture in, 401.

G

Glasgow, letters from, 106. 241. 379. 503—Chamber of Commerce of, their resolutions on the Corn-laws, 242.
Gold, prices of, at different periods since 1797, 71. 189.
Gooseberry Caterpillars, a mode of destroying them, 422.
Grain, estimate of the expense of cultivating in Scotland, 133—table of expenses for clay-land, 139—produce of such land, 140—component parts of the price of grain, 151—queries by the Board of Agriculture, 218.

——— on the expediency of selling by weight and measure, 151—effects of taxation on the price of, 223.
Grierson, William, Esq., letter from, respecting a Wheel-brake, 471.
Grubber, construction and advantages of, 198. 272.
Grubs, beneficial effects of crows in destroying, 315.

H

Harley, William, particulars regarding his Dairy near Glasgow, 188.
Heaths, on the introduction of exotic kinds of, as food for mountain flocks, 159.
Hepburn, the Hon. Mr Baron, his speech on the Corn-laws, review of, 206.
Highland Society of Scotland, Report of the Committee of, on the expediency of selling grain by weight and measure, 151.
Horse-shoe, for remedying contraction of the hoof, 203.
Horses and oxen compared, 274.

I

Inverness-shire, reports from, 107. 243. 380. 503.
Johnson, the Rev. H., on a mode of sowing grain in ribs, 51.
Ireland, on the culture of potatoes in, 56.
Iron-plough, (see Willie).

K

Kincardineshire, reports from, 108. 243. 381. 504.
Kirkcudbright, stewartry of, reports from, 109. 244. 382. 505.
Kirkcudbright, report of the Committee of the Agricultural Society of, regarding the improvements of Mr M'Lean of Mark, 422.

L

Lanarkshire, reports from, 111. 247. 385. 523.
Lancaster, letters from the neighbourhood of, 121. 262. 394. 516.
Langholm, letters from, 112. 249. 386. 506.
Lauderdale, Earl of, his pamphlets on the State of the Currency reviewed, 63—his letter on the Corn-laws reviewed, 206.
Lawsuits, outlines of a plan for avoiding, 290.
Lease, clause in a, for regulating the rent of arable land by the average price of corn, 316.
Lime, on the different qualities of, 163.
Liverpool, letters from, 122. 264. 517.
Lothian, East, on the roads of, 28.
——— reports from, 101. 250. 387. 507.
——— meeting in, on the Corn Laws, 102.
——— Mid, reports from, 113. 251. 388. 509.
——— West, reports from, 114. 253. 389. 510.
Loudoun & Moira, Countess of, improvements on her estates in Ayrshire, 472.
Lucern, culture and produce of, 490.

M

M'Lean, Alexander, Esq. of Mark, some account of his improvements, 422.
Manure, on the use of sea mud as a, 289.
Market-place at Edinburgh for sheep and lambs objected to, 466.
Mason, Mr C., on the short-horned breed of cattle, 59.

Merino Sheep, introduced into Orkney, 353.
Mildew in Wheat in the vale of the Tyne, 54.
Money & Currency, essay on, 179.
Morayshire, reports from, 115. 253. 389. 511.
Morton, Sam. account of a wheel-brake by, 470.
Moss (Flow), hints relative to the cultivation of every soil in preference to, 42.
Museums, on the advantages of collecting the rare productions of nature in, 201.

N

Neill, P. letter from, regarding the family of the late Mr Don, 341.
Northumberland, reports from, 125. 267. 395. 520.
Nottinghamshire, reports from, 125. 267. 396. 521.
——————— state of agriculture in, 458.

O

Oat-meal, on the quantity of, obtained from oats of different weights,—comparative weight of oats and meal—tables and observations thereon, 9. 154. 286. 426—on the modes of cooking, 308—consumption of, by a full grown labouring man, 309.
Oats, on the different quantities of food obtained from a crop of, and a crop of potatoes, 305—Hints on the quality of, in Scotland, 425—experiment on, 485.
Obituary, 131.
Orkney & Shetland Isles, review of the survey of, 343—Merino sheep introduced into, 353.
Oxen, inferior to horses for agricultural labour, 274—but recommended, 348.

P

Perthshire, reports from, 115. 254. 390. 512.
Plough, notice of a new wheel one, to be worked by one horse, 312—further account of, 434.
Potatoes, on cultivating them from the seed, 20—remarks on the Memoirs of the Caledonian Horticultural Society concerning, 296—on the causes of the curl disorder in, 298, 430—on the quantity of food obtained from a crop of, 305—the consumption of, by a labouring man, 309.

Q

Queries and answers regarding the cattle of Angus, 22—distillery feeding, 428.

R

Rain, the quantity of, that falls in the different parts of Scotland, 34.
Reaping-machine, (Mr Smith's), observations on the trial of, before a Committee of the Dalkeith Farming Club, 10.
Rent, clause in a lease for regulating the, by the price of corn, 316—mode of payment of, according to the fiars, 317.
Review of agricultural publications:—Of Lord Lauderdale's pamphlets on the Currency, 63—of pamphlets on the Corn-laws—Campbell's Letter to Sir H. Parnell—Baron Hepburn's Speech—resolutions of the Committees of Edinburgh, Leith, &c.—Lord Lauderdale's letter, 206—of the survey of the Orkney and Shetland islands, 343—of Communications to the Board of Agriculture, 478.
Ribbing, on the mode of sowing grain by, 51.
Richardson, Dr., on the varieties of fiorin, 192—strictures on his remarks, 195.
Roads, on the, of East Lothian, 28—on the assessment for, in Ross-shire, 155. 300—on the means of preserving, 205.

Robertson, George, Esq. on the produce of turnips in Ayrshire, 53. 169.
Rose, John, on the weight of oats and meal, 286.
Ross-shire, reports from, 117. 256. 392. 513.
Roxburghshire, reports from, 118. 257. 514.

S

Sea Mud, on the use of, as a manure, 289.
Sheep cots, account of one erected near Peebles, 282—expense of, 284—description of different kinds of, 285.
Shirreff, John, on cultivating potatoes from seed, 20—on the introduction of exotic heaths, 159—account of the grubber by, 198—observations on turnips, potatoes, and apple-trees, by, 293—survey of Orkney and Shetland by, 343.
Sibson, Francis, Esq., on the progress of agriculture in Cumberland. 467.
Sinclair, Sir John, letter from, 48—hints regarding the Corn-laws by, 177.
Smith, Mr, his reaping-machine, observations on the trial of, 10.
Soil, on the mixing of different earths for improving the, 417.
Straw, on the weight of, produced by different crops, 320—value of the different kinds of, 321—uses of, 324.

T

Trees, on the planting of, 168—varieties suited to different soils, 168—on the causes of rents in, 169.
Turnips, on the produce of, in Ayrshire, 53—certificates of the weight of, 169—preservation of, 204—remarks on the Ayrshire turnips, 293.
Tweeddale, reports from, 131. 393. 516.
Tweedside Agricultural Society, notice of their proceedings, 236.

U

Union Canal, remarks on the proposed line of, 114. 252.

W

Wales, letters from, 130. 400. 523.
Weather, abstract of the, 115. 254. 391. 512.
Wheat, on the varieties of, 1—classification of, 4—on an improved mode of drilling, 49.
Wheels, carriage, on the advantages of broad ones, 292. 479.
Wheel-Brake, account of a, for cleaning and pulverizing land, and for raising potatoes, 470.
Wigtonshire, reports from, 119. 258. 515.
——— inquiry into the price of labour, by the Sheriff-substitute of, 259.
Wilkie, John, notice of his new one-horse wheel-plough, 312—further account of, 434.
Wiltshire, reports from, 269.
——— Society, some account of, 127.
Workington Society, notice of the proceedings of, 467.

Y

Yorkshire, East Riding of, letters from, 128. 270. 367.
——— West Riding of, reports from, 271. 399. 522.

END OF VOLUME FIFTEENTH.

D. Willison, printer, Edinburgh.